take the red pill, whatever it takes for you to unplug and finally see clearly that the power has been taken away from you! The major political parties are, more often than not, ~~working~~ working toward their own agendas, not yours. ~~And yet~~ the vast majority continues to cling to their party, hoping that their voice will be heard, and not seeing results. ~~They stay~~ They stay because they do not agree with the other party. They stay because they are made to believe that "it's always been that way." It seems that countless millions bleed either blue, or red, but no one bleeds red, white and blue anymore.

The days of the monarchies of the two ruling parties have come to an end. Our current situation has evolved past the need for them. They mislead their members into believing that they are supposed to act in the best interests of the people, when, in fact, they are supposed to execute the direct will of the people. That means, Mr. Governor, that you have to ask me if health care is more important than education. That means, Mr. President, that you have to ask US if WE are ready to bring the troops back ~~home~~ home. Congress declares war, but Congress works for the American public. Representatives need to be reminded that they are EMPLOYEES!! OUR EMPLOYEES!! The days of the tail wagging the dog are over.

~~To~~ To action! If you are ~~not~~ not registered to vote, go out right now! Not tomorrow, but today! Register as an independent or, even better, have no party affiliation at all!! ~~If~~ If you ~~belong~~ belong to the red or blue monarchies, now is the time to declare your independence!! Not tomorrow! Now! Take away the power that they have wrongfully taken
